SICILIAN BAROQUE IN MIXED MEDIA: VISUAL AND MUSICAL IMAGES OF CATANIA

The Catania Committee of Phoenix Sister Cities presents a multi-media event celebrating the culture of its Sister City through:

- * A visual lecture by Dr. Thomas Puleo, Assistant Professor in the School of Political Science and Global Studies at Arizona State University, Tempe. Dr. Puleo's research interest in Catania is the devastating earthquake of 1693 and the birth of Sicilian Baroque architecture arising in the aftermath.
- * A musical interlude of Italian baroque compositions presented by Gino & Friends; this performance is given in celebration of the life of Marriann Gofonia, a long-time member of the Catania Sister Cities Committee.
- * The photography of Phoenix's Youth Ambassadors to the City of Catania, Sicily, captured during the Summer of 2009.

Sunday, December 6, 2009 at 5:00pm
in the Main Dining Room at the Arizona American Italian Club 7509 12th Street, Phoenix, 85020

There will be door prizes and hors d'oeuvres served,
and each ticket is redeemable
for one glass of wine or beer, or a soft drink.
